Dear Ms. Bennett:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated October 5, 2012 in which you requested copies of the report submitted by Treasury to the National Archives and Records Administration to the Archivist and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) pursuant to the November 28, 2011 Presidential Memorandum on Managing Government Records.

Records searches were conducted in the Office of Record Management and one document containing 12 pages was found. This document is released to you in full.

This letter represents the agency's final response to your request. If you are dissatisfied with the action taken on your request, you may appeal within 35 days from the date of this letter or the date of the letter transmitting the last records of release. Your appeal must be in writing, must be signed by you, and should contain the rationale for the appeal. Your appeal should be addressed to:
